

SALT LAKERS IN FIERCE STORMS

Frank Knox and G. S. Holmes
Arrive in New York on Mauretania.

CONTINUOUS BAD WEATHER

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE TO GIANT
NEW STEAMER.

(Special to The Herald.)

New York, March 28.—Reports of an unusually stormy voyage were made on the arrival this morning of the liner Mauretania from Liverpool. Heavy weather was experienced almost from the start, and on Monday night and Tuesday morning the sea was especially boisterous. Waves swept the upper deck repeatedly during the night. One unusually big one struck the navigating bridge. Several of the heavy glasses in the chart house were broken.

Officer Injured.

The fourth officer, Wingate, who was on the bridge, was cut about the face with flying glass. He was treated by the ship's surgeon and remained on duty. This wave also ripped the board floor of the chart house, which extends several feet over the deck. But the tearing of the boards did no substantial damage to the chart house. Several small sections of the boat deck were also torn away.

The sea broke over bow and stern chiefly, and was worse on the port side forward, but the passengers on the starboard side did not escape the pounding.

Knox and Holmes Aboard.

Frank Knox, president of the National Bank of the Republic, Salt Lake City, with G. S. Holmes, occupied stateroom No. 23 on the starboard side. Mr. Knox said that he and his friend were congratulating themselves that they were missing most of the hard weather, when a large wave dashed against their window and raised a life boat just outside of its davits and dropped it back again in position.

On Tuesday morning, according to the passengers, the weather was about as bad as it had been the previous night. During the afternoon the sea was not quite so bad, yet it was severe enough to be called a "dirty" sea. There was one accident on the trip. Shortly after the vessel left Liverpool John Curry, the chief engineer, had the index and third fingers of his left hand cut off by a large iron door in the engine room, which swung shut unexpectedly. He was put off at Queenstown for treatment when the ship stopped there.

GILLETTE'S FORLORN HOPE

Governor Hughes Will Make Up His Mind Some Time During Today.

Albany, N. Y., March 28.—Once more the life of Chester Gillette lies in the hands of Governor Hughes. What is claimed to be newly discovered evidence was submitted to the governor today and between now and tomorrow night he will decide whether or not he will remove the young man, who, without his interference, would die in the electric chair at Auburn prison, probably at the dawn of next Monday morning.

The only testimony given in public was that of three employees in the shirt factory at Courtland, where Gillette and Grace Brown both worked. They merely verified orally their affidavits to the effect that Grace Brown had "sneaks," which were a matter of common knowledge in the factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Gillette, parents of the condemned youth, and Miss Catherine Gillette, his aunt, were present at both sessions.

EXPECTED TO MAKE A HIT.

Miss Edith Sutherland to Appear in Theater Comic Opera.

(Special to The Herald.)

Washington, D. C., March 28.—Miss Edith, daughter of Senator Sutherland, has a part in a comic opera entitled "The Prince of Patches," to be produced during the week of April 29 at the Belasco theatre here, the proceedings going to charity. Miss Sutherland has a special part in the country maiden chorus, composed of six male and six female voices.

In "Old Time Girls" she is an Indian maiden, and in "A Little Girl" song she is one of "eight babies," dressed with baby frocks, etc. This is the annual presentation of the young society people of Washington, and the demand for seats is usually far greater than the supply. The house has been sold out for the entire week, and even now standing room is at a premium. Miss Sutherland has a well cultivated voice, and her friends in Washington expect her to make a decided hit.

DIGNITARIES ATTEND DEVONSHIRE FUNERAL

London, March 28.—The body of the Duke of Devonshire, who died at Cannes March 24, was laid to rest this afternoon beside the body of his father in the little church at Edensor, near Chatsworth. The funeral service was attended by representatives of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, Emperor William and the Prince and Princess of Wales. A host of members of the house of commons and house of peers, several cabinet ministers and distinguished persons from all parts of the country were also present.

CONDITION OF PENROSE.

Philadelphia, March 28.—There was no material change today in the condition of United States Senator Penrose. Tonight's bulletins announced that the senator had not lost any ground during the day.

Pianos and Other Instruments at Less Than Factory Cost

SALE COMMENCES MONDAY MORNING!

Extra Salesmen Engaged to Care for Our Friends

The greatest sale of Musical Instruments ever held in the West will start at the Clayton store, 109-111-113 South Main street, and at the Daynes store, 25-27 East First South street, Monday morning, promptly at 9 o'clock. Our lease on the Daynes store expires April 15th, and we MUST SELL 150 Pianos before that date. We cannot possibly get the combined stocks in the Main street store. Don't you want to be one of the happy buyers? You can have an instrument while you are paying for it.

We are forced to discontinue many agencies through combining the two lines. These will go for less than factory cost. They are all high-grade instruments, but where lines are duplicated some of them must be dispensed with.

Our sale prices will apply to all kinds and makes of instruments we carry, which include the world's greatest Pianos and Organs, including:

PIANOS	ORGANS
